

Community
Health Nurses'
Initiatives Group

CHNIG

de Souza
INSTITUTE

Monthly Seminar Series

Cultural Safety

Thursday, January 19, 2012

12 noon – 1:00 pm

SEMINAR OBJECTIVES:

By the end of this seminar nurses will have an increased understanding of:

- Cultural safety education and how it applies to nursing practice with Aboriginal clients
- The history of the residential school system and its impact on Aboriginal communities
- The concept of intergenerational trauma
- The importance of relationship building with Aboriginal clients and communities

PRESENTER:

Pamela Walker, RN, BScN, M.Ed. is a Lecturer at the Lawrence S. Bloomberg Faculty of Nursing. Prior to teaching, she worked for 20 years as a community health nurse in Aboriginal communities of coastal British Columbia. As an educator, she is interested in preparing nursing students to work with Aboriginal communities, and more broadly in what nursing students need to know to be able to collaborate with communities and promote equity in health after they graduate.

Access to this seminar is via webcast. Please go to the CHNIG Events Calendar at <http://www.chnig.org/modules/advcal/index.php>

Click on the link under January 19, 2012 to view the presentation. This link will be available starting at 12 noon on Jan. 19, 2012. All participants are eligible to receive a certificate of attendance for this seminar by completing a post-seminar survey.